

Awaken The Hour: Productions

Dan is an experienced Audio Engineer Graduate with 280 Hours of Technical Training in Recording, Engineering and Music Production from the Recording Workshop in Ohio. Additionally, He will graduate from Full Sail University in May of this year (2025) with his degree in Audio Production. Not only is Dan about to complete his degree at Full Sail University but, has EXCELLED in his academics, resulting in being nominated by Full Sail University and becoming a member of the National Honor Society of Collegiate Scholars for Audio Production. Dan is professionally trained in Audio Production techniques, sound quality and professional industry standard softwares. He is a life long musician and songwriter with an extreme passion for creating music in any capacity. Dan is also a retired Air Force Master Sergeant (Senior Manager) with a 20 year extensive background including oversight of logistics, military operation planning, fiscal year budgeting, as well as training methodology and development. He has stepped foot into almost 60 countries, and performed over 250 combat missions in Iraq. In 2019 he was awarded the United States Meritorious Service Award and Security Forces "Non Commissioned Officer of the Year" Award, beating out all other Security Forces candidates in the Air Force's largest career field across 8 different bases. He is also a 2018 graduate of the Community College of the Air Force with an Associates Degree in Criminal Justice.